

CHARDHAM YATRA 2012

With

Bharat Yatra

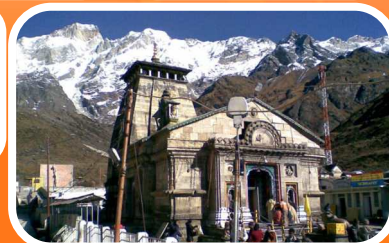

A Journey to Incredible India

A SPIRITUAL JOURNEY TO PEACE, PROSPERITY, GOOD HEALTH, LOVE, JOY AND PURE HAPPINESS OF LIFE.

About Chardham Yatraa

According to the Hindu scriptures, the holy centers of Gangotri, Yamunotri, Badrinath and Kedarnath - collectively called the CHAR DHAM (meaning the four sacred spots) - are the most sacred of all the pilgrimages. Undertaking a journey to these places will not just wash away one's sins but ensure release from the cycle of birth and death. It is also said that heaven and earth converge in these holy spots, and to be born or die here is a boon only the very fortunate have. The honors conferred on these places are not surprising.

Once there, the sheer magnificence and the tranquil beauty will immerse you into a world of spirituality that allows you experience a sense of true peace and humility. You will taste the richness in Mother Nature in its full glory.

The splendor of this holy pilgrimage will overwhelm your inner being and connects you to the source of purity and much peace. This vast exquisite beauty will forever linger in your heart and soul - the pilgrimage to the Char Dhams is the experience that will stay with you now and beyond.

The CHAR DHAM, also called THE DEO BHUMI - The Adobe of the Gods - presents just the ambience where the Divine & the Sublime coexist. For one, they are all in the icy Garhwal ranges and regarded as the most sacred of all Himalayan ranges. The CHAR DHAM must be visited from left to right - beginning with Yamunotri, going on to Gangotri, Kedarnath and culminating the journey at Badrinath. This route follows the Hindu tradition of parikrama or clockwise Circumambulation.
